PROTECTION ORDER

Parties were sworn by the Court to tell the truth. Kristen Harris-Lee, petitioner, addressed the Court; requested entry of an order. Ms. Murphy presented argument; objected to entry; prepared to proceed; addressed investigation as to criminal charges. Court recessed.

Case recalled at 10:28 a.m. Witnesses excused from the Courtroom.

Ms. Murphy presented argument; now requesting continuance to preserve rights. Ms. Harris-Lee addressed the Court; objected to continuance; Mr. Lee failed to turn over all weapons, still in possession.

Ms. Murphy presented further argument regarding surrender of firearms; does own other firearms which are not in his possession; one weapon in possession was surrendered to Tumwater Police.

Court authorized a 60 day continuance; continued the temporary order in full force and effect.

Court required Ms. Murphy to an affidavit from the third-party who was holding the firearms providing a list of those weapons and acknowledging that if they provided those weapons to Mr. Lee they may be criminally liable; to be filed within one week.

Court required Ms. Murphy contact Ms. Harris-Lee to reissue the order without a Court appearance if criminal charges are not completed; matter may be set with proper notice if charges were declined.

This matter was continued to April 9, 2008 at 9:00 a.m.
