Warnings to Respondent: A violation of provisions 1 through 6 of this order with actual notice of its terms is a criminal offense under chapter 26.50 RCW and will subject you to arrest. If the violation of the protection order involves travel across a state line or the boundary of a tribal jurisdiction, or involves conduct within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States, which includes tribal lands, you may be subject to criminal prosecution in federal court under 18 U.S.C. § 2261, 2261A, or 2262.

A violation of provisions 1 through 6 of this order is a gross misdemeanor unless one of the following conditions apply: Any assault that is a violation of this order and that does not amount to assault in the first degree or second degree under RCW 9A.36.011 or 9A.36.021 is a class C felony. Any conduct in violation of this order that is reckless and creates a substantial risk of death or serious physical injury to another person is a class C felony. Also, a violation of this order is a class C felony if you have at least two previous convictions for violating a protection order issued under Titles 7, 10, 26 or 74 RCW.

If the court issues a final protection order, and your relationship to the petitioner is that of spouse or former spouse, parent of a common child, or former or current cohabitant as intimate partner, including a current or former registered domestic partner, you may not possess a firearm or ammunition for as long as that final protection order is in effect. 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(8). A violation of this federal firearms law carries a maximum possible penalty of 10 years in prison and a $250,000 fine. An exception exists for law enforcement officers and military personnel when carrying department/government-issued firearms. 18 U.S.C. § 925(a)(1). If you are convicted of an offense of domestic violence, you will be forbidden for life from possessing a firearm or ammunition.

18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(9); RCW 9.41.040.

You Can Be Arrested Even if the Person or Persons Who Obtained the Order Invite or Allow You to Violate the Order's Prohibitions. You have the sole responsibility to avoid or refrain from violating the order's provisions. Only the court can change the order upon written application.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2265, a court in any of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, any United States territory, and any tribal land within the United States shall accord full faith and credit to the order.

It is further ordered that the clerk of the court shall forward a copy of this order on or before the next judicial day to Olympia  County Sheriff's Office  Police Department Where Petitioner Lives which shall enter it in a computer based criminal intelligence system available in this state used by law enforcement to list outstanding warrants.

The clerk of the court shall also forward a copy of this order on or before the next judicial day to  County Sheriff's Office  Police Department Where Respondent Lives which shall personally serve the respondent with a copy of this order and shall promptly complete and return to this court proof of service.
