STATEMENT: The respondent has committed acts of domestic violence as follows. (Describe specific acts of domestic violence and their approximate dates, beginning with the most recent act. You may want to include police responses.)

8/1/98 ~~Verbal~~ dispute on 8/1/98 we had a verbal dispute over the separation of bills which escalated to him grabbing my planner out of my hand which contained my credit cards and drivers license. I tried to grab the planner out of his hands so I could leave with my child. Then Danny grabbed onto my arms and pushed me onto the ground which hurt my back (I just recently had back surgery due to a broken back) I then started hitting him to free my self. I received bruises on my right arm. I tried using the phone to call my sisters house to see if she was home, so that I had a place to go to. Danny almost punched me in my face for using the cordless phone. It scared me very badly. Danny also told me that he wouldn't let me take alex (my 4th child) anywhere and that ~~he was taking~~ Danny was taking alex to Oregon. ~~He~~ Danny also had my keys so that I couldn't leave. This wasn't been the only incident on July 11th we got into an argument and ~~he~~ choked me and also pushed me onto the ground which hurt my back so bad that I couldn't go to work. There was also a time in May where Danny wouldn't let me leave.

(Continue on separate page if necessary)

he took my keys and any means for money. This was before surgery.

and)	ORDER OF PROTECTION

Respondent.)

State of Washington) County of Pierce) ss.

COMES NOW the affiant, having first been duly sworn on oath, and herewith deposes and says as follows:

1. My name is Daniel Crawford. I am the respondent in the above-entitled case. I make this affidavit on the basis of my own personal knowledge and belief to oppose my wife Susan's request for an Order of Protection against me. I am a member of the United States Marine Corps currently serving at Fort Lewis, Washington, where I was stationed on humanitarian assignment after my wife was involved in a serious car accident here in November of last year.

ORIGINAL

1 Background

2 2. I married my wife Susan in the hospital after she had 3 been in a car accident in which she broke her back. I have 4 been here in Washington ever since. My family is from Oregon.
5 Susan has family in the Spanaway area.

6 3. Susan and I have one child together, a little boy
7 Alex, who is now 4 months old. Alex is a "daddy's boy." It 8 seems to frustrate my wife that Alex will do things for me that 9 he will not do for her. My son and I are very close. Susan 10 has been recuperating from back surgery and I have been caring 11 for Alex an awful lot since he was born.

12 4. Recently, Susan has begun to get back to work. She 13 works for her sister as an assistant loan processor at Town and 14 Country Mortgage in Puyallup on a part-time basis, and she also 15 works at a restaurant in Puyallup on a part-time basis.

16 5. Susan has had a history of domestic violence on me, 17 and apparently has admitted as much to Jack Phillips and other 18 mental health counselors at Madigan Army Medical Center. About 19 six weeks ago, I took Susan into the emergency room at Madigan 20 because she stood right in front of me and started to down an 21 entire bottle of pills, telling me she was going to kill 22 herself. I stuck my hand down Susan's throat and managed to 23 get the pills out of her mouth, but I did not know how many she 24 may have swallowed. I got her into the car and took her to the 25 emergency room at Madigan. Susan tried to jump out of the car 26
27

1 on the way to the hospital. The staff there stabilized her
 2 physically and also referred her for some mental health 3 treatment.

4 Current Status

5 6. I am currently residing with my sister in Silverdale
 6 and commuting every day to work at Fort Lewis from there, 7 because I have been prevented by court order from returning to 8 our home in Puyallup after an incident on August 1, 1998. I am 9 also having to borrow a vehicle from my sister in order to get 10 to work because my wife took the only vehicle of the family, or 11 at least allowed her brother-in-law to take it.

12 7. I have no criminal record and this is the first time 13 I have been in any trouble. I am afraid I may lose my job with 14 the Marine Corps if the protective order is allowed to stand.
 15 My command may not allow me to carry a gun if they think I 16 cannot handle that responsibility. If I cannot carry a weapon, 17 I am of no use to the Marine Corps. There are no guns in our 18 home, and I will never allow a gun in the home now that I have 19 seen Susan's instability.

20 8. I believe my wife has been under pressure from her 21 sister Lynn Schuler and Lynn's husband for some time now to 22 leave me. I believe that Mr. and Mrs. Schuler have given Susan 23 a lot of pressure over this and made things actually much worse 24 between us because of it. Susan has now moved with my son into 25 her sister's home in Spanaway, leaving our apartment vacant. I 26
 27
 28

1 do not see the sense of my being prevented from entering our 2 apartment in Puyallup since Susan is not there anyway.

3 Response to Petition for Temporary Order of Protection

4 9. I have read my wife's handwritten statement in 5 support of her request for a temporary protection order.
6 Almost all of it is false, and what is not false has been 7 grossly exaggerated. Susan leaves out a lot of information 8 about what went on that morning before any of the discussion of 9 bills took place.

10 10. I went for a run that morning and when I got home 11 Susan asked me if I wanted eggs for breakfast. She was cooking 12 the eggs and seasoning them with pepper when the centerpiece of 13 the pepper shaker fell off into the eggs. Susan started 14 cursing at me, telling me to cook the eggs. She set the eggs 15 on a plate in front of me and told me to "fucking eat." Later 16 on, after breakfast, Susan asked me to put up some shelves and 17 I told her I was tired of being treated rudely and I did not 18 want to put the shelves up. At that point, Susan flew into a 19 rage, telling me how she hates me, calling me an asshole, 20 telling me how I disgust her, and threatened to throw a piece 21 of wood at me. Susan's comments went on like that all day 22 long.
23

24 11. Susan began to talk about divorce as she was going 25 through her rage. I told her not to talk to me and did my best 26 to ignore her. Susan did not accept my ignoring her and came 27

1 up into my face. She began slapping me and pushing me, calling 2 me names the whole time. Eventually, the time came when Susan 3 had to leave the house to go to work. She called the house 4 twice from work to talk about bills.

5 12. When Susan came home from work she picked up the 6 topic of divorce again and insisted on talking about splitting 7 up our belongings. Susan took my wallet from off the table and 8 started cutting up my credit cards. I got my wallet away from 9 her and walked over to her purse where her day-planner was.
10 Susan claims I had her keys but I did not. She was able to 11 leave any time. I told her I would give her day-planner to her 12 as soon as she took her name off my bank account.

13 13. Susan started grabbing for her day-planner, hitting 14 me numerous times in the face, arms, back, and groin. I kept 15 telling Susan to just leave me alone and stay away from me, but 16 she kept coming back, hitting me and grabbing for her day-17 planner.

18 14. At one point, I had our son Alex in my arms but that 19 did not stop Susan from hitting me. She continued hitting and 20 yelling. She then picked up the telephone and called her 21 brother-in-law Jon Schuler, who works as a police officer in 22 King County. I heard Susan ask Jon if she could bring Alex and 23 come over to their house.

24 15. I told Susan that I did not want her taking Alex 25 because I wanted to take him for a visit to my family in 26
27

28

1 Oregon. I did not tell Susan that Alex would be taken to 2 Oregon permanently. While Susan was still on the telephone to 3 her brother-in-law, she told him that I had grabbed her wrists.
4 Apparently Jon called the police at that point.

5 16. At the time the police arrived at our home, I had 6 locked myself in the bedroom with Alex and Susan was on the 7 other side of the door trying to come into the bedroom. Two 8 police officers arrived at the home and separated us, taking 9 statements from each of us. The police told me that because I 10 had not returned Susan's day-planner to her and because I am 11 physically larger than she is, I would be getting the citation.
12 The police seemed to totally ignore the fact that I had tried 13 to get away from Susan by locking myself and our son in the 14 bedroom.

15 17. The police officers worked out an agreement between 16 Susan and I that I would stay at the apartment in Puyallup, 17 with the car so that I could get back and forth to work, and 18 Susan and Alex would go to her sister and brother-in-law's 19 house. As the police were preparing to leave, I was on the 20 telephone to my father when I heard someone yelling outside. I 21 looked out the window and saw my car was gone and my brother-22 in-law Jon was standing in the driveway laughing. Jon yelled 23 that I deserve whatever I get and that if I messed with him he 24 would make me "disappear."
25
26
27
28

1 18. I immediately called 9-1-1 and reported my car
2 stolen. I asked to speak with the same officer that had 3 previously responded to the call to our house. That officer 4 called me back and informed me that he had given Susan 5 permission to take the car after all.

6 19. Later that evening I went to the bank and discovered 7 that Susan had used my ATM card to remove all the funds from 8 our joint bank account at Washington Mutual Bank, except for 9 $200.00 which the bank would not allow her to remove because 10 they wanted it to cover any outstanding checks.

11 Alleged incident in July 1998

12 20. I notice that Susan now claims in her statement to 13 the court that I was violent with her on July 11, 1998. She 14 states that I choked her and pushed onto the ground, hurting 15 her back so badly that she could not go to work. I have never 16 choked my wife, and I have never pushed her to the ground. I 17 am very aware of her back condition and I do not initiate 18 confrontations with her.

19 21. My recollection of that day is that Susan slipped 20 while doing the stair-climbing exercises her doctor wants her 21 to do. Susan was obviously in a lot of pain. I picked her up, 22 carried her to bed, gave her some medication, and called her 23 work for her to say she would not be in because she was in a 24 lot of pain after a fall.

22. I see that Susan now claims also that there was an incident in May 1998 when I would not let her leave the house. Susan again states that I took her keys that day. Susan has exaggerated and distorted the facts here. What happened in May was we argued and Susan called her sister to come get her. I helped pack the car and Susan was gone less than 24 hours before she called and asked to come home again.

Conclusion

23. It looks to me like Susan is thinking of getting a divorce from me. I would like to see our marriage work. I am not a violent man. I realize the court may not take my word on that. This is my second marriage and I do not want to see it fail. If Susan is willing enroll in mental health counseling, I am certainly willing to attend marriage counseling or do anything else within reason to try and prevent the failure of our marriage.

24. Our bills are not so terrible that with two working parents we cannot deal with them. We have a car loan for our 1998 Saturn with a balance owed of about $15,000.00. We also have two MasterCard on which we owe about $5,500.00, and then we have a Discovery card on which the balance is about $2,500.00. If Susan and I need to go to consumer credit counseling to get help with paying off these bills, I am certainly willing to take a look at that. I am disturbed that Susan took $520.00 out of our joint bank account, and I would

1 ask that she replace that money so that we can apply it to our 2 debts. We have a rent payment coming up at the apartment and 3 right now I do not have the money to make that payment.

4 25. If Susan wants to continue living with her sister and 5 brother-in-law in Spanaway while I live in the apartment, maybe 6 that would allow us time to see where our marriage is going. I 7 am supposed to return to Camp Pendleton in California on 8 September 1, and from there I am supposed to go to Japan in 9 November for six months. Susan can continue to occupy the 10 apartment in Puyallup when I leave for California. In other 11 words, with these types of arrangements, I do not see why it 12 would be necessary for Susan and I to have a continued 13 restraining order.

14 I declare under penalty of perjury according to the laws 15 of the State of Washington, that the foregoing is true and 16 correct to the best of my information and belief.
