Dear Ms. Finlay, I am respectfully asking the courts that the no-contact order between Benjamin Solano and myself, be dropped.

I am asking this due to the fact that I am three months pregnant with his child.

As Ben would like to be involved in our child's life, I would really want to encourage a relationship between the baby and him, such as being able to inform him of what is going on during my pregnancy. It would be greatly appreciated if he went to my appointments with me as well, because I know he deeply wants to be there for everything, and for me.

I have no malicious intentions with requesting this to be dropped; only for the simple fact we are having a child together. I'd like to thank you for taking time to read this. Again, thank you.

-Sincerely, Taylor Barrett
