Interview:

Date: 7/10/2014.

Staff: Kelley McIntosh

Interview notes: Kirsten told me she was living at her mother's residence at the time of this arrest. However, she intends to go stay with a friend now. Kirsten was polite and cooperative during the interview, but was very emotional with regards to the nature of her arrest. Kirsten told me she does not want to be in Tumwater any longer. I spoke with Kirsten's friend, Daquiri McMillan who verified her address in Tenino for Kirsten.

Kirsten is unemployed and receives child support. She told me she was recently diagnosed with some medical issues.

Kirsten is not on any active supervision. She has no other matters pending.

Release is recommended.
