2. Children

The (check one): Court Minor Person interested in the minor's welfare
(name): Kathryn and Hans Stoker requested that an emergency guardian be appointed for the children listed in 1.

➤ Findings

A hearing was held on the Emergency Minor Guardianship Petition. The court considered the petition, any objection, supporting documents, and any other evidence in the record, including _____

3. Basis for Emergency Guardianship

The petition should be:

Denied because _____

Approved. The court finds that appointment of an emergency guardian is likely to prevent substantial harm to the minor's health, safety, or welfare, and no other person appears to have authority and willingness to act in the circumstances.

The approval is based on the following facts: Mother is unable to exercise parenting functions and has been restrained from contacting H.S. or O.S.W (See Case No. 21-4-0578-34) due to pending criminal charges stemming from an incident on 7/17/21, including assault of H.S.

4. Indian Children Father is absent + unable to locate/contact.

(An Indian child is a child who is a member of an Indian tribe, or who is the biological child of an Indian tribe member and eligible for membership. Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 USC 1903.)

None of the children are Indian children. The state and federal Indian Child Welfare Acts do not apply to this case.

These children are or may be Indian children (name/s): _____
_____. The federal and state Indian Child Welfare Acts apply to this case.

Jurisdiction – The court has does not have jurisdiction over the Indian children.

Notice to tribes – The Petitioner (check one):

- provided the Indian Child Welfare Act Notice (GDN M 401) and a copy of the Petition to all of the tribes, people, and agencies entitled to notice.
- did not provide the Indian Child Welfare Act Notice and a copy of the Petition to all of the tribes, people, and agencies entitled to notice.

Order – Petitioners must provide the Indian Child Welfare Act Notice (form GDN M 401) and a copy of the Petition to the:

- children’s tribes or possible tribes
 - Indian custodian
 - children’s parents
 - Bureau of Indian Affairs
- The court does not have enough information to decide whether any of the children are Indian children.

Order – Petitioners must make a good faith effort to find out if any of the children are Indian children and provide the Indian Child Welfare Act Notice (GDN M 401) and a copy of the Petition to all of the tribes, people, or agencies entitled to notice. Good faith efforts are defined in RCW 13.38.050.

5. Jurisdiction Over the Children

This court cannot decide this case for these children (names): _____
_____ because this court does not have jurisdiction over them. The Petition should be dismissed as to these children.

This court can decide this case for these children because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write “the children” instead of listing names):

Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a parenting plan, residential schedule, or custody order for the children and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children’s names): _____

Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children’s home state because (check all that apply):

(Children’s names): _____ lived in Washington with a parent, or someone acting as a parent, for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed or, if the children were less than 6 months old when the case was filed, they had lived in Washington with a parent, or someone acting as a parent, since birth.

There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they were less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.

(Children’s names): _____ do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children’s home state sometime in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.

(Children’s names): _____ do not have another home state.

No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children’s names): _____

_____ or a court in the children's home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:

- The children and a parent, or someone acting as a parent, have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
- There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children's care, protection, education, and relationships in this state.

Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children's names): Colorado's home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.

Temporary emergency jurisdiction – Washington had temporary emergency jurisdiction over (children's names): _____ when the case was filed, and now has jurisdiction to make a final custody decision because:

- When the case was filed, the children were abandoned in this state, or the children were in this state and the children (or children's parent, brother or sister) was abused or threatened with abuse;
- The court signed a temporary order on (date) _____ saying that Washington's jurisdiction will become final if no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for _____ months;
- The children have now lived in Washington for 6 months; and
- No case concerning the children has been started in the children's home state (or tribe).

Other reason (specify): _____

6. Background Records Checked

The Court has (unless stated otherwise below):

- Checked the judicial information system for any information or proceedings relevant to placement of the children;
- Reviewed records from the Department of Children, Youth, and Families provided in response to the court's Order to DCYF to Release CPS Information; and
- Reviewed the criminal history record from the Washington State Patrol for the Guardian and each adult living in the Guardian's home.

The court did not check background records because the Petition is denied.

Other findings (specify): _____

7. Service Members' Relief Acts (Active Duty Military)

(The federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act covers:

- Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard members on active duty;
- National Guard or Reserve members under a call to active service for more than 30 days in a row; and
- commissioned corps of the Public Health Service and NOAA.

The state Service Members' Civil Relief Act covers those service members listed above who are either stationed in or residents of Washington State, and their dependents, except for the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service and NOAA.)

(Name/s): the parties are not covered by the state or federal Service Members' Civil Relief Acts, and the acts do not apply to this proceeding.

(Name/s): _____ are covered by the state or federal Service Members' Civil Relief Acts, and the acts do apply to this proceeding.

The court signed the Order re Service Members Civil Relief Act (form FL All Family 170) filed separately.

The requirements of the act(s) have been met as follows:

The court does not have enough information to find whether (name/s): _____ are covered by the state or federal Service Members' Civil Relief Acts.

8. Limits on Guardian's Authority

Does not apply. The Petition should be denied.

No limits should be put on the guardian's authority over the children's upbringing or decision-making for the children.

The guardian should share decision-making authority and access to records with parent/s and/or children as ordered in section number 9 and 10 below because:
