

Thurston County Superior Court of Washington		No. 20-2-30788-34
Selena_Smith_____06/11/1976 Petitioner vs. James_Wells_____DOB Respondent	DOB	Petition for Renewal of Order for Protection (PT)

1. The Order for Protection dated 12/17/2020 will expire on (date): 12/17/2021

2. I want to renew the Order for Protection because: James Wells has not complied with the judge's orders for substance use/alcohol evaluation, or abuser treatment, which was included in the Domestic Violence Order of Protection for Selena Smith, Onawa Smith-Wells, Raven-Gaia Smith-Wells and Hazel Belle Smith. As a result, he continues to pose a threat to the parties protected by this order. The risk for abuse is still high. It is reasonable to renew the order until he complies with the judge's orders. Furthermore, James Wells has persisted in illegal and abusive behavior, through third parties, and in distributing illegal recordings, as well as stalking, with the use of third parties. Since his behavior has not abated, and he has not complied with the judge's original orders, it is important that this court enforce the orders and renew the protection order for the protected parties, which is reasonable. James Wells disregard for the judge's orders, the protection order itself, and refusal to comply is a reasonable basis for having this order renewed. I would like a full hearing, with opportunity for testimony, in this matter.

3. ☒ I want this order to remain effective longer than one year because the respondent is likely to resume acts of domestic violence if the order expires in a year.

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.
