13. Spousal Support (maintenance/alimony)

- Spousal support was not requested.
- Spousal support should be based on the separation contract listed in 7.
- Spousal support was requested.

Conclusion: Spousal support should (check one):

- be ordered because: _____

- not be ordered because: _____

14. Fees and Costs

- Each party should pay his/her own fees or costs.
- Fees and costs should be paid according to the separation contract listed in 7.
- The (check one): Petitioner Respondent incurred fees and costs, and needs help to pay those fees and costs. The other spouse has the ability to help pay fees and costs and should be ordered to pay the amount as listed in the final order. The court finds that the amount ordered is reasonable.
- Fees for a guardian ad litem (GAL) or other court-appointed professional should be paid as listed in the final order. The court has considered relevant factors including each party's ability to pay, and finds the fees as ordered are reasonable.
- Other findings: _____

15. Protection Order

- The (check one): Petitioner Respondent requested a Restraining Order.
Conclusion: The court should (check one):
 - not approve a Restraining Order because: _____

 - approve a Restraining Order because: _____

17. Pregnancy

Neither spouse is pregnant.

One of the spouses is pregnant (check one): Petitioner Respondent

Conclusion: The pregnancy shall not delay finalization of this case. Finalization of this case shall not affect any future case about the unborn child's parentage that is filed within the time limits allowed by law.

A case about the parentage of the unborn child has been joined (combined) with this case. The court's Findings and Conclusions about Parentage will be filed separately.

Other (specify): _____

Note: The law considers the other spouse to be the parent of any child born during the marriage or within 300 days after it ends. If the other spouse is not the parent, either spouse may file a Petition to Disprove Parentage of Presumed Parent (FL Parentage 355) in court. In most cases, the deadline to file the Petition to Disprove is before the child turns four. (See RCW 26.26.116, 26.26.500 – 26.26.625.)
If everyone agrees, both spouses and the child's biological father can sign an Acknowledgment (and Denial) of Paternity. Those forms must be notarized and filed with the Washington State Registrar of Vital Statistics to be valid.

18. Children of the marriage

The spouses have no children together who are still dependent.

The spouses have the following children together who are still dependent (only list children the spouses have together, not children from other relationships):

Child's name	Age	Child's name	Age
1. Levi Casano	5	4.
2.		5.
3.		6.

If there are children listed above who do not have both spouses listed on their birth certificates, the State Registrar of Vital Statistics should be ordered to amend the children's birth certificates to list both spouses as parents.

Other (specify): _____

19. Jurisdiction over the children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

Does not apply. The spouses have no children together who are still dependent.

The court can approve a Parenting Plan for the children the spouses have together because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write "the children" instead of listing names):

Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children's names):

Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children's home state because (check all that apply):

(Children's names): Levi Cagano lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the children were less than 6 months old when the case was filed, they had lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.

There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they were less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.

(Children's names): _____ do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children's home state some time in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.

(Children's names): _____ do not have another home state.

No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children's names): _____

or a court in the children's home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:

- The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
- There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children's care, protection, education and relationships in this state.

Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children's names): _____'s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.

Temporary emergency jurisdiction – Washington had temporary emergency jurisdiction over (children's names): _____ when the case was filed, and now has jurisdiction to make a final custody decision because:

- When the case was filed, the children were abandoned in this state, or the children were in this state and the children (or children's parent, brother or sister) was abused or threatened with abuse;
- The court signed a temporary order on (date) _____ saying that Washington's jurisdiction will become final if no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months;
- The children have now lived in Washington for 6 months; and
- No case concerning the children has been started in the children's home state (or tribe).

Other reason (specify): _____

The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

20. Parenting Plan

- The spouses have no children together who are still dependent.
- The court signed the final Parenting Plan filed separately today or on (date): _____
 - Both parents agreed to and signed the Parenting Plan.
 - Other (specify): _____

The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

21. Child Support

- The spouses have no children together who are still dependent.
- The dependent children should be supported according to state law.
 - The court signed the final Child Support Order and Worksheets filed separately today or on (date): _____
 - There is no need for the court to make a child support order because the DSHS Division of Child Support (DCS) has already established an administrative child support order for the children of this marriage in DCS case number(s) _____
- Other (specify): _____

17. Children of the marriage

- The spouses have no children together who are still dependent.
- This court has jurisdiction over the children the spouses have together as explained in the Findings and Conclusions for this case.

If there are children of both spouses listed in the Findings and Conclusions who do not have both spouses listed on their birth certificates, the State Registrar of Vital Statistics is ordered to amend the children’s birth certificates to list both spouses as parents upon receipt of a certified copy of this order and the Findings and Conclusions.

*Note – The court does not forward this order to Vital Statistics. To amend the birth certificate, a party must provide a certified copy of this order and the Findings and Conclusions and pay a filing fee to the State Registrar of Vital Statistics (360-236-4347). You may order a copy of the amended birth certificate for an additional fee.*

- This court does not have jurisdiction over the children as explained in the Findings and Conclusions for this case.

18. Parenting Plan

- Does not apply. The spouses have no dependent children together, or the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.
- The court signed the final Parenting Plan filed separately today or on (date): _____.
- The guardian ad litem (GAL) is discharged.

19. Child Support

- Does not apply. The spouses have no dependent children together, or the court does not have jurisdiction over child support.
- Court Order – The court signed the final Child Support Order and Worksheets filed separately today or on (date): _____.
Tax issues and post-secondary (college or vocational school) support are covered in the Child Support Order.
- Administrative Order – The court is not issuing a child support order. There is an administrative child support order established by DSHS Division of Child Support (DCS) for the dependent children of this marriage.

DCS child support orders do not cover tax issues or post-secondary (college or vocational school) support. Therefore, the court orders:

4. Limitations on a parent

Does not apply. There are no reasons for limitations checked in 3.a. or 3.b. above.
(Skip to 5.)

No limitations despite reasons (explain why there are no limitations on a parent even though there are reasons for limitations checked in 3a. or 3.b. above): _____

The following limits or conditions apply to (parent's name): _____
(check all that apply):

No contact with the children.

Limited contact as shown in the Parenting Time Schedule (sections 8 – 11) below.

Limited contact as follows (specify schedule, list all contact here instead of in a Parenting Time Schedule, skip sections 8 – 11): _____

Supervised contact. All parenting time shall be supervised. Any costs of supervision must be paid by (name): _____

The supervisor shall be:

a professional supervisor (name): _____

a non-professional supervisor (name): _____

The dates and times of supervised contact will be:

as shown in the Parenting Time Schedule (sections 8 – 11) below.

as follows (specify): _____

(Specific rules for supervision, if any): _____

Other limitations or conditions during parenting time (specify): _____

Evaluation or treatment required. (Name): _____ must:

be evaluated for: _____.

start (or continue) and comply with treatment:

as recommended by the evaluation.

as follows (specify kind of treatment and any other details): _____

provide a copy of the evaluation and compliance reports (specify details): _____

If this parent does not follow the evaluation or treatment requirements above, then (what happens): _____

5. Decision-making

When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and emergency health care. Major decisions must be made as follows

a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

Type of Major Decision	Joint (parents make these decisions together)	Limited (only the parent named below has authority to make these decisions)
School / Educational	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Health care (not emergency)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> (Name):

b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

- There are no reasons to limit major decision-making.
- Major decision-making must be limited because one of the parents has problems as described in 3.a. above.
- Major decision-making should be limited because (check all that apply):
 - Both parents are against shared decision-making.
 - One of the parents does not want to share decision-making and this is reasonable because of:
 - problems as described in 3.b. above.
 - the history of each parent's participation in decision-making.
 - the parents' ability and desire to cooperate with each other in decision-making.
 - the distance between the parents' homes makes it hard to make timely decisions together.

6. Dispute Resolution – If you and the other parent disagree:

From time to time, the parents may have disagreements about shared decisions or about what parts of this parenting plan mean. To solve disagreements about this parenting plan, the parents will go to a dispute resolution provider or court. The court may only require a dispute resolution provider if there are no limitations in 3a.

a. The parents will go to (check one):

- The dispute resolution provider below (before they may go to court):
- Mediation (mediator or agency name): DRC

If there are domestic violence issues, you may only use mediation if the victim asks for mediation, mediation is a good fit for the situation, and the victim can bring a support person to mediation.

Arbitration (arbitrator or agency name): _____

Counseling (counselor or agency name): _____

If a dispute resolution provider is not named above, or if the named provider is no longer available, the parents may agree on a provider or ask the court to name one.

Important! Unless there is an emergency, the parents must participate in the dispute resolution process listed above in good faith, before going to court. This section does not apply to disagreements about money or support.

Court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling).

(If you check this box, skip to section 7 below, do not fill out 6.b.)

b. If mediation, arbitration, or counseling is required, one parent must notify the other parent by (check one): certified mail other (specify): Phone

The parents will pay for the mediation, arbitration, or counseling services as follows (check one):

(Name): James Tucker will pay 50%,

(Name): Mariah Casano will pay 50%.

based on each parents' Proportional Share of Income (percentage) from line 6 of the Child Support Worksheet.

as decided through the dispute resolution process.

What to expect in the dispute resolution process:

- Preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan.
- If you reach an agreement, it must be put into writing, signed, and both parents must get a copy.
- If the court finds that you have used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without a good reason, the court can order you to pay financial sanctions (penalties) including the other parent's legal fees.
- You may go back to court if the dispute resolution process doesn't solve the disagreement or if you disagree with the arbitrator's decision.

7. Custodian

The custodian is (name): Mariah Casano ^{Tucker} solely for the purpose of all state and federal statutes which require a designation or determination of custody. Even though one parent is called the custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in this plan.

(Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than custody. However, some state and federal laws require that one person be named the custodian. The custodian is the person with whom the children are scheduled to reside a majority of their time.)

11. Conflicts in Scheduling

The Holiday Schedule must be observed over all other schedules. If there are conflicts within the Holiday Schedule (check all that apply):

Named holidays shall be followed before school breaks.

Children's birthdays shall be followed before named holidays and school breaks.

Other (specify): _____

12. Transportation Arrangements

The children will be exchanged for parenting time (picked up and dropped off) at:

each parent's home

school or daycare when in session

other location (specify): _____

Who is responsible for arranging transportation?

The picking up parent – The parent who is about to start parenting time with the children must arrange to have the children picked up.

The dropping off parent – The parent whose parenting time is ending must arrange to have the children dropped off.

Other details (if any): _____

13. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, s/he must give notice within 5 days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, s/he must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the relocating person to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move, but s/he may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with Children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of Intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different school district with the children unless s/he has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the relocating person believes that s/he or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)

The court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

Parenting Plan after move

If the relocating person served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.
- Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with Children (FL Relocate 706).

Forms

You can find forms about moving with children at:

6. Imputed Income

To calculate child support, the court may impute income to a parent:

- whose income is unknown, or
- who the court finds is unemployed or under-employed by choice.

Imputed income is not actual income. It is an assigned amount the court finds a parent could or should be earning. (RCW 26.19.071(6))

7. Limits affecting the monthly child support amount

Does not apply. The monthly amount was not affected by the upper or lower limits in RCW 26.19.065.

The monthly amount has been affected by (check all that apply):

low-income limits. The self-support reserve and presumptive minimum payment have been calculated in the Worksheets, lines 8.a. - c.

the 45% net income limit. The court finds that the paying parent's child support obligations for his/her biological and legal children are more than 45% of his/her net income (Worksheets, line 18). Based on the children's best interests and the parents' circumstances, it is (check one): fair. not fair to apply the 45% limit. (Describe both parents' situations):

Combined Monthly Net Income over $12,000. Together, the parents earn more than $12,000 per month (Worksheets line 4). The child support amount (check one):

is the presumptive amount from the economic table.

is more than the presumptive amount from the economic table because (specify):

The standard calculation for the parent paying support is $ _____.
This is from (check one):

The Attachment for Residential Split Adjustment (Arvey calculation), line G (form WSCSS–Attachment for RSA). This Attachment to the Child Support Schedule Worksheets is approved by the court and made part of this order.

Other calculation (specify method and attach Worksheet/s): _____

9. Deviation from standard calculation

Should the monthly child support amount be different from the standard calculation?

No – The monthly child support amount ordered in section 10 is the same as the standard calculation listed in section 8 because (check one):

No one asked for a deviation from the standard calculation. (Skip to 10.)

There is no good reason to approve the deviation requested by (name/s): _____
The facts supporting this decision are (check all that apply):

detailed in the Worksheets, Part VIII, lines 20 through 26.

the parent asking for a deviation:

has a new spouse or domestic partner with income of $ _____.

lives in a household where other adults have income of $ _____.

has income from overtime or a 2nd job that was excluded in section 5 above.

other (specify): _____

Yes – The monthly child support amount ordered in section 10 is different from the standard calculation listed in section 8 because (check all that apply):

A parent or parents in this case has:

children from other relationships.

paid or received child support for children from other relationships.

gifts, prizes, or other assets.

income that is not regular (non-recurring income) such as bonuses, overtime, etc.

unusual unplanned debt (extraordinary debt not voluntarily incurred).

tax planning considerations that will not reduce the economic benefit to the children.

very different living costs, which are beyond their control.

The children in this case:

spend significant time with the parent who owes support. The non-standard amount still gives the other parent's household enough money for the children's basic needs. The children do not get public assistance (TANF).

have extraordinary income.

have special needs because of a disability.

have special medical, educational, or psychological needs.

There are (or will be) costs for court-ordered reunification or a voluntary placement agreement.

The parent who owes support has shown it is not fair to have to pay the $50 per child presumptive minimum payment.

The parent who is owed support has shown it is not fair to apply the self-support reserve (calculated on lines 8.a. – c. of the Worksheets).

Other reasons: Agreement of the parties

The facts that support the reasons checked above are (check all that apply):

detailed in the Worksheets, Part VIII, lines 20 through 26.

the parent asking for a deviation:

has a new spouse or domestic partner with income of $ _____.

lives in a household where other adults have income of $ _____.

has income from overtime or a 2nd job that was excluded in section 5 above.

as follows: _____

10. Monthly child support amount (transfer payment)

After considering the standard calculation in section 8, and whether or not to apply a deviation in section 9, the court orders the following monthly child support amount (transfer payment).

(Name): James Tucker must pay child support to (name): pay her each month as follows for the children listed below (add lines for additional children if needed):

	Child's Name	Age	Amount
1.	Levi Casano	5	$ 400.
2.			$
3.			$
4.			$
5.			$
Total monthly child support amount:			$ 400

Residential Split – Each parent has at least one of the children from this relationship living with him/her most of the time. (Name): _____ must pay child support to (name): _____ each month as follows:

Total monthly child support amount: $

11. Starting date and payment schedule

The monthly child support amount must be paid starting (month, year): 2/20 on the following payment schedule:

in one payment each month by the ____ day of the month.

in two payments each month: ½ by the 1 and ½ by the 15 day of the month.

other (specify): _____

12. Step Increase (for modifications or adjustments only)

Does not apply.

Approved – The court is changing a final child support order. The monthly child support amount is increasing by more than 30% from the last final child support order. This causes significant financial hardship to the parent who owes support, so the increase will be applied in two equal steps:

- For six months from the Starting Date in section 11 above, the monthly child support amount will be the old monthly amount plus ½ of the increase, for a total of $ _____ each month.
- On (date): _____, six months after the Starting Date in section 11, the monthly child support amount will be the full amount listed in section 10.

Denied – The court is changing a final child support order (check one):

but the monthly payment increased by less than 30%.

and the monthly payment increased by more than 30%, but this does not cause a significant hardship to the parent who owes support.

13. Periodic Adjustment

Child support may be changed according to state law. The Court is not ordering a specific periodic adjustment schedule below.

Any party may ask the court to adjust child support periodically on the following schedule without showing a substantial change of circumstances:

The Motion to Adjust Child Support Order may be filed:

every _____ months.

on (date/s): _____

other (describe condition or event): _____

Important! A party must file a Motion to Adjust Child Support Order (form FL Modify 521), and the court must approve a new Child Support Order for any adjustment to take effect.

Deadlines, if any (for example, deadline to exchange financial information, deadline to file the motion): _____

14. Payment Method (check either Registry or Direct Pay)

Registry – Send payment to the Washington State Support Registry. The Division of Child Support (DCS) will forward the payments to the person owed support and keep records of all payments.

Address for payment: Washington State Support Registry
PO Box 45868, Olympia, WA 98504

Phone number/s: 1 (800) 922-4306 or 1 (800) 442-5437

the court has approved the parents' written agreement for a different payment arrangement.

16. End date for support

Support must be paid for each child until (check one):

the court signs a different order, if this is a temporary order.

the child turns 18 or is no longer enrolled in high school, whichever happens last, unless the court makes a different order in section 17.

the child turns 18 or is otherwise emancipated, unless the court makes a different order in section 17.

after (child's name): _____ turns 18. Based on information available to the court, it is expected that this child will be unable to support him/herself and will remain dependent past the age of 18. Support must be paid until (check one):

this child is able to support him/herself and is no longer dependent on the parents.

other: _____

other (specify): _____

17. Post-secondary educational support (for college or vocational school)

Reserved – A parent or non-parent custodian may ask the court for post-secondary educational support at a later date without showing a substantial change of circumstances by filing a Petition to Modify Child Support Order (form FL Modify 501). The Petition must be filed before child support ends as listed in section 16.

Granted – The parents must pay for the children's post-secondary educational support. Post-secondary educational support may include support for the period after high school and before college or vocational school begins. The amount or percentage each person must pay (check one):

will be decided later. The parties may make a written agreement or ask the court to set the amount or percentage by filing a Petition to Modify Child Support Order (form FL Modify 501).

is as follows (specify): _____

Denied – The request for post-secondary educational support is denied.

Other (specify): _____

18. Tax Issues

Important! Although the personal tax exemptions are currently suspended under federal law through tax year 2025, other tax benefits may flow from claiming a child as dependent.

Does not apply.

The parties have the right to claim the children as their dependents for purposes of personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on their tax forms as follows (check one):

- Every year – (name): Mariah TUC
 has the right to claim (children's names): Law; Casano;
 and (name): _____
 has the right to claim (children's names): _____.
- Alternating – (name): _____ has the right to claim the children for (check one): even odd years. The other parent has the right to claim the children for the opposite years.
- Other (specify): _____

For tax years when a non-custodial parent has the right to claim the children, the parents must cooperate to fill out and submit IRS Form 8332 in a timely manner.

19. Medical Support

Important! Read the Medical Support Warnings at the end of this order. Medical Support includes health insurance (both public and private) and cash payments towards premiums and uninsured medical expenses.

- The court is not ordering how health care coverage must be provided for the children because the court does not have enough information to determine the availability of accessible health care coverage for the children (coverage that could be used for the children's primary care). The law requires every parent to provide or pay for medical support. The Division of Child Support (DCS) or any parent can enforce this requirement. (Skip to 20.)
- Private health insurance ordered. (Name): _____ must pay the premium to provide health insurance coverage for the children. The court has considered the needs of the children, the cost and extent of coverage, and the accessibility of coverage.
- The other parent must pay his/her proportional share* of the premium paid. Health insurance premiums (check one):
 - are included on the Worksheets (line 14). No separate payment is needed.
 - are not included on the Worksheets. Separate payment is needed. A parent or non-parent custodian may ask DCS or the court to enforce payment for the proportional share.
- * Proportional share is each parent's percentage share of the combined net income from line 6 of the Child Support Schedule Worksheets.
- The other parent is not ordered to pay for any part of the children's insurance because (explain): _____

A parent cannot be excused from providing health insurance coverage through an employer or union solely because the child receives public health care coverage.

- A parent has been ordered to pay an amount that is more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19). The court finds this is in the children's best interest because: _____

A parent cannot be ordered to pay an amount towards health care coverage premiums that is more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19) unless the court finds it is in the best interest of the children.

- Public health care coverage. (Name): _____ has enrolled the child in public health care coverage, and does not have available at no cost accessible health insurance coverage through an employer or union.
- The other parent must enroll the child in accessible health insurance coverage through their employer or union up to 25% of their basic support obligation.
- The other parent must pay his/her proportional share* of the premium for public health care coverage for the child. Public health care premiums (check one):
- are included on the Worksheets (line 14). No separate payment is needed.
- are not included on the Worksheets. Separate payment is needed. A parent or non-parent custodian may ask DCS or the court to enforce payment for the proportional share.
- * Proportional share is each parent's percentage share of the combined net income from line 6 of the Child Support Schedule Worksheets.
- The other parent is not ordered to pay for any part of the children's health care coverage because (explain): _____

A parent cannot be excused from providing health insurance coverage through an employer or union solely because the child receives public health care coverage.

- A parent has been ordered to pay an amount that is more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19). The court finds this is in the children's best interest because: _____
- Other (specify): _____
- _____
- _____

20. Health care coverage if circumstances change or court has not ordered

If the parties' circumstances change, or if the court is not ordering how health care coverage must be provided for the children in section 19:

- A parent, non-parent custodian, or DCS can enforce the medical support requirement.
- If a parent does not provide proof of accessible health care coverage (coverage that can be used for the children's primary care), that parent must:
 - Get (or keep) insurance through his/her work or union, unless the insurance costs more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (line 19 of the Worksheets),
 - Pay his/her share of the other parent's monthly premium up to 25% of his/her basic support obligation (line 19 of the Worksheets), or
 - Pay his/her share of the monthly cost of any public health care coverage, such as Apple Health or Medicaid, which is assigned to the state.

21. Children's expenses not included in the monthly child support amount Uninsured medical expenses – Each parent is responsible for a share of uninsured medical expenses as ordered below. Uninsured medical expenses include premiums, co-pays, deductibles, and other health care costs not paid by health care coverage.

All the warnings below are required by law and are part of the order. Do not remove.

Warnings!

If you don't follow this child support order...

- DOL or other licensing agencies may deny, suspend, or refuse to renew your licenses, including your driver's license and business or professional licenses, and
- Dept. of Fish and Wildlife may suspend or refuse to issue your fishing and hunting licenses and you may not be able to get permits. (RCW 74.20A.320)

If you receive child support...

You may have to:

- Document how that support and any cash received for the children's health care was spent.
- Repay the other parent for any day care or special expenses included in the support if you didn't actually have those expenses. (RCW 26.19.080)

Medical Support Warnings!

The parents must keep the Support Registry informed whether or not they have access to health care coverage for the children at a reasonable cost, and provide the policy information for any such coverage.

* * *

If you are ordered to provide children's health care coverage...

You have 20 days from the date of this order to send:

- proof that the children are covered , or
- proof that health care coverage is not available as ordered.

Send your proof to the other parent or to the Support Registry (if your payments go there).

If you do not provide proof of health care coverage:

- The other parent or the support agency may contact your employer or union, without notifying you, to ask for direct enforcement of this order (RCW 26.18.170), and
- The other parent may:
 - Ask the Division of Child Support (DCS) for help,
 - Ask the court for a contempt order, or
 - File a Petition in court.

Don't cancel your employer or union health insurance for your children unless the court approves or your job ends and you no longer qualify for insurance as ordered in section 19.

If an insurer sends you payment for a medical provider's service:

- you must send it to the medical provider if the provider has not been paid; or
- you must send the payment to whoever paid the provider if someone else paid the provider; or
- you may keep the payment if you paid the provider.

If the children have public health care coverage, the state can make you pay for the cost of the monthly premium.

Always inform the Support Registry and any parent if your access to health care coverage changes or ends.
