In re:

No. 21-3-00272-23

Petitioner:

Parenting Plan
(PPP / PPT / PP)

RACHEL A. FERRAND

Clerk's action required: 1

And Respondent:

EDWARD SCOTT REED

Parenting Plan

1. This parenting plan is a Proposal by a parent: Edward Reed. It is not a signed court order (PPP).

2. Children - This parenting plan is for the following children:

Child's name	Age
1. Leon Jaymz Reed	7

3. Reasons for putting limitations on a parent (under RCW 26.09.191)

a. Abandonment, neglect, child abuse, domestic violence, assault, or sex offense.
(If a parent has any of these problems, the court must limit that parent's contact with the children and that parent's right to make decisions for the children, and may not require dispute resolution other than court.)

Neither parent has any of these problems. (Skip to 3.b.)

A parent has one or more of these problems as follows (check all that apply):

- 1         Abandonment - (Parent's name): intentionally abandoned a 2        child listed in 2. for an extended time.
- 3         Neglect - (Parent's name): substantially refused to perform 4        his/her parenting duties for a child listed in 2.
- 5         Child Abuse - (Parent's name): (or someone living in that 6        parent's home) abused or threatened to abuse a child. The abuse was (check all 7        that apply):  physical  sexual  repeated emotional abuse.
- 8         Domestic Violence - (Parent's name): Rachel Ferrand (or someone living in that 9        parent's home) has a history of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010.
- 10        Assault - (Parent's name): (or someone living in that parent's 11       home) has assaulted or sexually assaulted someone causing grievous physical 12       harm, causing fear of such harm, or resulting in a pregnancy.
- 13        Sex Offense -
14        (Parent's name): has been convicted of a sex offense as an 15       adult.
16        Someone living in (parent's name): 's home has been 17       convicted as an adult or adjudicated as a juvenile of a sex offense.
- 18       b. Other problems that may harm the children's best interests (If a parent has any of 19       these problems, the court may limit that parent's contact with the children and that 20       parent's right to make decisions for the children.):
21        Neither parent has any of these problems. (Skip to 4.)
22        A parent has one or more of these problems as follows (check all that apply):
23        Neglect - (Parent's name): neglected his/her parental duties 24       towards a child listed in 2.
25        Emotional or physical problem - (Parent's name): has a long-term emotional or physical problem that gets in the way of his/her ability to parent.
26        Substance Abuse - (Parent's name): has a long-term problem with drugs, alcohol or other substances that gets in the way of his/her ability to parent.
27        Lack of emotional ties - (Parent's name): has few or no emotional ties with a child listed in 2.
28        Abusive use of conflict - (Parent's name): Rachel Ferrand uses conflict in a way that may cause serious damage to the psychological development of a child listed in 2.

Withholding the child - (Parent's name): Rachel Ferrand has kept the other parent away from a child listed in 2. for a long time, without good reason.

Other (specify):

4. Limitations on a parent

No limitations despite reasons (explain why there are no limitations on a parent even though there are reasons for limitations checked in 3.a. or 3.b. above):

5. Decision-making

When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and emergency health care. Major decisions must be made as follows:

a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

Type of Major Decision	Joint (parents make these decisions together)	Limited (only the parent named below has authority to make these decisions)
School / Educational	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> ( Name ):
Health care (not emergency)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> ( Name ):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> ( Name ):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> ( Name ):
Other:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/> ( Name ):

b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

Major decision-making should be limited because (check all that apply):

Both parents are against shared decisions-making.

One of the parents does not want to share decisions-making and this is reasonable because of :

problems as described in 3.b. above.

the history of each parent's participation in decision-making.

the parents' ability and desire to cooperate with each other in decision-making.

the distance between the parents' homes makes it hard to make timely decisions together.

1 6. Dispute Resolution

2 Important! After this parenting plan is signed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent
3 disagree about shared decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute
4 resolution provider before going back to court. The court may only require a dispute resolution provider if 5 there are no limitations in 3.a. above. If a dispute resolution provider is checked below, the parents may, and sometimes must, use this provider before filing a Petition to Change a Parenting Plan or a Motion for Contempt for not following the plan. Check your county's Local Court Rules.

6 The parents will go to court (without having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling).

7 What to expect in the dispute resolution process

- 8 • Preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan.
- 9 • If you reach an agreement, it must be put into writing, signed, and both parents must get a copy.
- 10 • If the court finds that you have used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without a good reason, the court can order you to pay financial sanctions (penalties) including the other parent's legal fees.
- 11 • You may go back to court if the dispute resolution process doesn't solve the disagreement or if you disagree with the arbitrator's decision.

12 7. Custodian

13 The custodian is (name): Rachel Ferrand solely for the purpose of all state and federal 14 statutes which require a designation or determination of custody. Even though one parent is called the custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in this plan.

15 (Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than custody. However, some 16 state and federal laws require that one person be named the custodian. The custodian is the person with whom the children are scheduled to reside a majority of their time.)

17 Parenting Time Schedule (Residential Provisions)

18 8. School Schedule

19 a. Children under school-age

20 The schedule for children under school-age is the same as for school-age children.

21 b. School-age children

22 This schedule will apply immediately.

23 The children are scheduled to live with Rachel Ferrand except when they are scheduled to 24 live with Edward Reed on (check all that apply):

25  WEEKENDS:

every week.  every other week.  other (specify):

From Friday at 4:00 p.m. to Sunday at 4:00 p.m.

9. Summer Schedule

Summer begins and ends according to the school calendar.

During the summer the children are scheduled to live with Rachel Ferrand except when they are scheduled to live with Edward Reed every other week (i.e., week on / week off).

WEEKENDS:

every week  every other week  other (specify):

From (day) at : .m. to (day) at : .m.

From (day) at : .m. to (day) at : .m.

WEEKDAYS:

every week  every other week  other (specify):

From (day) at : .m. to (day) at : .m.

From (day) at : .m. to (day) at : .m.

OTHER (specify): Week on / week off.

10. Holiday Schedule (includes school breaks and special occasions)

The children are scheduled to spend holidays, school breaks, and special occasions as follows: (Check all that apply. Note any differences for children who have not yet started school.)

Martin Luther King Jr. Day – Begins and ends (day/time): Martin Luther King Day until 4:00 p.m.

With the parent who has the children for the attached weekend

Presidents' Day – Begins and ends (day/time): President's Day until 4:00 p.m.

With the parent who has the children for the attached weekend

1 Mid-winter Break – Begins and ends (day/time):

2  Each parent has the children for the half of break attached to his/her weekend.
3 The children must be exchanged on Wednesday at (time): 4:00 p.m.

4 Spring Break – Begins and ends (day/time):

5  Each parent has the children for the half of break attached to his/her weekend.
6 The children must be exchanged on Wednesday at: 4:00 p.m.

7 Mother's Day – Begins and ends (day/time): Mother's Day at Noon.

8  Every year with (name): Rachel Ferrand

9 Memorial Day – Begins and ends (day/time): Memorial Day until 4:00 p.m.

22 New Year's Eve / Day – Begins and ends (day/time): New Year's Eve at 4:00 p.m.-
23 New Years Day at 4:00 p.m.
(odd/even is based on New Year's Eve)

24  Every odd year with (name): Edward Reed; Even years with the other parent.

25 All three-day weekends not listed elsewhere
(Federal holidays, school in-service days, etc.)

The children shall spend any unspecified holiday or non-school day with the parent who has them for the attached weekend.

Important! Families in Washington observe a broad range of religions and traditions. Your Parenting Plan can provide for how children will spend time on other significant days. (Examples: Eid, Passover, Easter, Chinese New Year, birthdays, etc.) Add lines as needed.

4 11. Conflicts in Scheduling

The Holiday Schedule must be observed over all other schedules. If there are conflicts within the Holiday Schedule (check all that apply):

6  Named holidays shall be followed before school breaks.

7 12. Transportation Arrangements

8 The children will be exchanged for parenting time (picked up and dropped off) at Little 9 Rock Fire Department or McLane Fire Department.

10 Who is responsible for arranging transportation?

11  The picking up parent - The parent who is about to start parenting time with the 12 children must arrange to have the children picked up.

13  The dropping off parent - The parent whose parenting time is ending must 14 arrange to have the children dropped off.

Other details (if any):

15 13. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

16 Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who 17 wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered 18 time with the children.

18 Move to a different school district

19 If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form
20 Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days
21 before the intended move.

22 Exceptions:

- 23 • If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to 24 complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, s/he must give notice within five 25 days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate, and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out

1 of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to 2 Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

3 The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone 4 personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

5 If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, s/he 6 must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

7 Move within the same school district

8 If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person still has to let the other
9 parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a 10 return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific 11 form is required.

12 Warning! If you do not notify...

13 A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of 14 court. If that happens, the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the 15 relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and 16 ordering the relocating person to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

17 Right to object

18 A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different 19 school district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is 20 within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move 21 but s/he may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the 22 modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

23 An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with children and Petition about 24 Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your 25 Objection with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different school district with the children unless s/he has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the relocating person believes that s/he or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)

- the court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

Parenting Plan after move

If the relocating person served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.
- Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with Children (FL Relocate 706).

Forms

You can find forms about moving with children at:

- The Washington State Courts' website: www.courts.wa.gov/forms,
- Washington LawHelp: www.washingtonlawhelp.org, or
- The Superior Court Clerk's office or county law library (for a fee).

(This is a summary of the law. The complete law is in RCW 26.09.430 through 26.09.480.)

14. Other

- A. Emergency Medical Decisions and Expenses: Whenever a child has an emergency medical situation, the other parent will put forth best efforts to inform the other parent of the situation so that they can make joint decisions. Emergency medical bills will be split evenly among the parents.
- B. Each parent shall have equal and independent authority to confer with school, day care, and other programs with regard to the child's progress and each shall have free access to school, day care and other records. While the child is in their individual care, each parent shall have authority to give parental consent or permission as may be required concerning school, day care, and other programs.
- C. Each parent shall be empowered to obtain emergency health care for the child without consent of the other parent. Each parent is to notify the other parent as soon as reasonably possible if any illness requiring medical attention or any emergency involving the child. Each parent shall have full access to medical, dental and counseling records of the child.
- D. The children may be accompanied to her/his events by the parent with whom he/she is then residing at the time of the given event. The other parent will not be limited from attendance at that event, provided said attendance by the nonresidential parent is not disruptive to the other participants and does not interfere with the residential parent's time with the children. Each parent shall be responsible for keeping himself or herself advised of school, athletic and social events in which the child participates. Both parents may participate in the children's school and extracurricular activities, such as open houses and recitals, to which parents are normally invited.
- E. Both parents understand the importance of the child being allowed to participate in sports and other school activities as part of the children's proper development.

Therefore, each parent shall honor the development level of the children and the school

1 and organized, extracurricular activities of the child, and the parents shall ensure that 2 the children attend the activities during each parent's residential time with the children.

3 F. Each parent shall exert reasonable effort to maintain free access and unhampered 4 contact and communication between the children and the other parent and promote the 5 emotions of affections, love and respect between the children and the other parent.
6 Neither parent shall make derogatory comments about the other parent or allow anyone 7 else to do the same in the children's presence. Neither parent shall allow or encourage 8 the children to make derogatory comments about the other parent.

9 G. Each parent shall honor the other parent's parenting style, privacy and authority.
10 Neither parent shall interfere in the parenting style of other parent provided it is not 11 abusive or neglectful, nor shall either parent make plans or arrangements that would 12 impinge on the other parent's authority or time with the children without express 13 agreement of the other parent, except normal extracurricular activities in which the 14 children normally participate. Each parent shall encourage the children to discuss their 15 grievances against a parent with the parent in question. It is the intent of the parties to 16 direct communication and facilitate a child-parent bond.

17 H. Neither parent shall ask the children to make decisions or requests involving the 18 residential schedule. Neither parent shall discuss the residential schedule with the 19 children, except for plans that have already been agreed to by both parents in advance.

20 I. Neither parent shall encourage the children to change their primary residence or 21 encourage the children to believe it is their choice to do so.

22 J. Neither parent shall apprise the children of the status of child support payments or other 23 legal matters regarding the parent's relationship.

24 K. Neither parent shall use the children directly or indirectly to gather information about the 25 other parent or take verbal messages to the other parent.

L. Each parent shall keep the other parent apprised of his/her current home telephone number, cell phone number, home address, mailing address (if different, and e-mail address.

M. Each parent shall be entitled to have the children participate in his or her religious activities. Neither parent shall disparage the other parent's religious activities or attempt to sway the children to their respective religious or philosophical viewpoint.

19 15. Proposal

20 This is a proposed (requested) parenting plan. (The parent/s requesting this plan must
