Ref: Mildred Ann Vedder, Case No. 97 5 00460 1
Subj: Back child support

Dear Ms. Banks:

I request that Scott Paul Turchin, Mildred's father, be ordered to pay me, Mildred's mother, back child support for Mildred in the amount of $1591.55. This amount is for the following:

1. Basic child support not received for the previous four months, namely, August, September, October, and November 1997, at the ordered transfer payment rate of $240.00 per month, i.e.,  $$240.00 \times 4$  or $960.00.
2. Underpayment of basic child support of $40.00 a month for the first six months of this year, namely, January, February, March, April, May, and June 1997, i.e.,  $$40.00 \times 6$  or $240.00. And, underpayment of basic child support for July 1997 of $140.
3. Mildred's extraordinary health care expenses not covered by her medical insurance since her birth at his ordered proportional share of 64.5%, i.e., 64.5% of $390.00 or $251.55.

Thank you for your assistance.

Yours Truly,

3.14 SUMMARY OF Ch. 21 Laws 2000 SECTIONS 5-10, REGARDING RELOCATION OF A CHILD:

This is a summary only. For the full text, please see Ch.
21 Laws 2000.

If the person with whom the child resides a majority of the time plans to move, that person shall give notice to every person entitled to court ordered time with the child.

If the move is outside the child's school district, the relocating person must give notice by personal service or by mail requiring a return receipt. This notice must be at least 60 days before the intended move. If the relocating person could not have known about the move in time to give 60 days' notice, that person must give notice within 5 days after learning of the move. The notice must contain the information required in Ch. 21 Laws 2000 Section 6. See also form DR 07.0500 (Notice of Intended Relocation of A Child.)

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person must provide actual notice by any reasonable means. A person entitled to time with the child may not object to the move but may ask for modification under RCW 26.09.260.

Notice may be delayed for 21 days if the relocating person is entering a domestic violence shelter or is moving to avoid a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk
to health and safety.

If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.

A relocating person may ask the court to waive any notice requirements that may put the health and safety of a person or a child at risk.

Failure to give the required notice may be grounds for sanctions, including contempt.

If no objection is filed within 30 days after service of the notice of intended relocation, the relocation will be permitted and the proposed residential schedule may be confirmed.

A person entitled to time with a child under a court order can file an objection to the child's relocation
whether or not he or she received proper notice.

An objection may be filed by using the mandatory pattern form WPF DR 07.0700, (Objection to Relocation/Motion for Modification of Custody Decree/Parenting Plan/Residential Schedule (Relocation)). The objection must be served on all persons entitled to time with the child.

The relocating person shall not move the child during the time for objection unless: (a) the delayed notice provisions apply; or (b) a court order allows the move.

If the objecting person schedules a hearing for a date within 15 days of timely service of the objection, the relocating person shall not move the child before the hearing unless there is a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to the health or safety of a person or a child.
