23 (1) There is sufficient evidence for the court to determine which parent must 24 provide coverage and which parent must contribute a sum certain. Fill in 25 B and C below.

 B. Findings about insurance:

 The court makes the following findings:

Scott P. Turchin (Parent's Name)	(Parent's Name)	Check at least one of the following findings for each parent.
X		Insurance coverage for the child(ren) is available and accessible to this parent at $138.14 cost (child(ren)'s portion of the premium, only).

C. Parties' obligations:

The court makes the following orders:

Scott P. Turchin (Parent's Name)	(Parent's Name)	Check at least one of the following options for each parent.
X		This parent shall provide health insurance coverage for the child(ren) that is available through employment or is union-related as long as the cost of such coverage does not exceed 25% of this parent's basic support obligation.

D. Both parties' obligation:

If the child is receiving state financed medical coverage, the Division of Child Support may enforce the responsible parent's monthly premium.

The parent(s) shall maintain health insurance coverage, if available for the child listed in paragraph 3.1, until further order of the court or until health insurance is no longer available through the parents' employer or union and no conversion privileges exist to continue coverage following termination of employment.

A parent who is required under this order to provide health insurance coverage shall provide proof that such coverage is available or not available within 20 days of the entry of this order to the other parent or the Washington State Support Registry if the parent has been notified or ordered to make payments to the Washington State Support Registry.

If proof that health insurance coverage is available or not available is not provided within 20 days, the parent seeking enforcement or the Department of Social and Health Services may seek direct enforcement of the coverage through the other parent's employer or union without further notice to the other parent as provided under Chapter 26.18 RCW.

1 3.18.2 Change of Circumstances and Enforcement

2 A parent required to provide health insurance coverage must notify both the Division of
3 Child Support and the other parent when coverage terminates.

4 If the parents' circumstances change, or if the court has not specified how medical
5 support shall be provided, the parents' medical support obligations will be enforced as
6 provided in RCW 26.18.170. If a parent does not provide proof of accessible coverage
7 for the child(ren) through private insurance, a parent may be required to satisfy his or her
8 medical support obligation by doing one of the following, listed in order of priority:

- 9 Providing or maintaining health insurance coverage through the parent's employment
10 or union at a cost not to exceed 25% of that parent's basic support obligation;

14 obligation; or
15 Contributing the parent's proportionate share of a monthly premium paid by the state
16 if the child(ren) receives state-financed medical coverage through DSHS under 17 RCW 74.09 for which there is an assignment.
