Upon searching the data banks of the Department of Defense Manpower Data Center, based on the information that you provided, the above is the status of the individual on the active duty status date as to all branches of the Uniformed Services (Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, NOAA, Public Health, and Coast Guard). This status includes information on a Servicemember or his/her unit receiving notification of future orders to report for Active Duty. HOWEVER, WITHOUT A SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER, THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE MANPOWER DATA CENTER CANNOT AUTHORITATIVELY ASSERT THAT THIS IS THE SAME INDIVIDUAL THAT YOUR QUERY REFERS TO. NAME AND DATE OF BIRTH ALONE DO NOT UNIQUELY IDENTIFY AN INDIVIDUAL.

Mary M. Snavelly-Dixon, Director
Department of Defense - Manpower Data Center
4800 Mark Center Drive, Suite 04E25
Arlington, VA 22350

The Defense Manpower Data Center (DMDC) is an organization of the Department of Defense (DoD) that maintains the Defense Enrollment and Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) database which is the official source of data on eligibility for military medical care and other eligibility systems.

The DoD strongly supports the enforcement of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 USC App. § 501 et seq, as amended) (SCRA) (formerly known as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940). DMDC has issued hundreds of thousands of "does not possess any information indicating that the individual is currently on active duty" responses, and has experienced only a small error rate. In the event the individual referenced above, or any family member, friend, or representative asserts in any manner that the individual was on active duty for the active duty status date, or is otherwise entitled to the protections of the SCRA, you are strongly encouraged to obtain further verification of the person's status by contacting that person's Service via the "defenselink.mil" URL: <http://www.defenselink.mil/faq/pis/PC09SLDR.html>. If you have evidence the person was on active duty for the active duty status date and you fail to obtain this additional Service verification, punitive provisions of the SCRA may be invoked against you. See 50 USC App. § 521(c).

This response reflects the following information: (1) The individual's Active Duty status on the Active Duty Status Date (2) Whether the individual left Active Duty status within 367 days preceding the Active Duty Status Date (3) Whether the individual or his/her unit received early notification to report for active duty on the Active Duty Status Date.

More information on "Active Duty Status"

Active duty status as reported in this certificate is defined in accordance with 10 USC § 101(d) (1). Prior to 2010 only some of the active duty periods less than 30 consecutive days in length were available. In the case of a member of the National Guard, this includes service under a call to active service authorized by the President or the Secretary of Defense under 32 USC § 502(f) for purposes of responding to a national emergency declared by the President and supported by Federal funds. All Active Guard Reserve (AGR) members must be assigned against an authorized mobilization position in the unit they support. This includes Navy Training and Administration of the Reserves (TARs), Marine Corps Active Reserve (ARs) and Coast Guard Reserve Program Administrator (RPAs). Active Duty status also applies to a Uniformed Service member who is an active duty commissioned officer of the U.S. Public Health Service or the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA Commissioned Corps).

Coverage Under the SCRA is Broader in Some Cases

Coverage under the SCRA is broader in some cases and includes some categories of persons on active duty for purposes of the SCRA who would not be reported as on Active Duty under this certificate. SCRA protections are for Title 10 and Title 14 active duty records for all the Uniformed Services periods. Title 32 periods of Active Duty are not covered by SCRA, as defined in accordance with 10 USC § 101(d)(1).

Many times orders are amended to extend the period of active duty, which would extend SCRA protections. Persons seeking to rely on this website certification should check to make sure the orders on which SCRA protections are based have not been amended to extend the inclusive dates of service. Furthermore, some protections of the SCRA may extend to persons who have received orders to report for active duty or to be inducted, but who have not actually begun active duty or actually reported for induction. The Last Date on Active Duty entry is important because a number of protections of the SCRA extend beyond the last dates of active duty.

Those who could rely on this certificate are urged to seek qualified legal counsel to ensure that all rights guaranteed to Service members under the SCRA are protected.

WARNING: This certificate was provided based on a last name, SSN/date of birth, and active duty status date provided by the requester. Providing erroneous information will cause an erroneous certificate to be provided.

4 A. It is the intention of the parents that each of them shall continue to have a full
5 and active role in providing a sound moral, social, economic and educational 6 environment for the child. The parents recognize that because of their separate
7 households the dynamics of their interactions with the child have changed. In entering 8 into this parenting plan which delineates many of their rights and responsibilities as 9 parents, it is the intent of the parents that the goal of mutual involvement with the 10 child will be achieved and the negative effects on the child of the change in the family
11 dynamics will be minimized.

12 B. Each of the parents shall exert every reasonable effort to maintain free access
13 and unhampered contact between the child and the other parent, and to foster feelings
14 of affection between the child and the other parent. Neither parent shall do anything 15 which would estrange the child from the other parent, or which would injure the 16 opinion of the child as to the mother or the father, or which would impair the natural 17 development of the child's love and respect for the other parent. Both parents agree to 18 nurture, support and encourage the child's relationship with both parents. Neither 19 parent will speak negatively regarding the other in the presence of the child. Neither 20 parent shall make derogatory comments about the other parent or allow anyone else to 21 do the same in the child's presence. Neither parent shall allow or encourage the child 22 to make derogatory comments about the other parent.

23 C. Both parents shall be required to keep the other advised of his or her residential 24 schedule and employment addresses and telephone numbers at all times, provided, 25 however, that neither parent shall telephone the other or address mail to the other at 26 his or her place of employment. (Calls to employment are okay in case of emergencies and for scheduling issues.)

27 D. Each parent shall have the equal and independent authority to confer with 28 physicians, dentists, counselors, or other health care providers for the child, and each 29 shall have free access to the child's health care records, unless otherwise provided by 30 Court order or statute. Each parent shall provide the other parent promptly upon 31 receipt any significant information regarding the welfare of the child including 32 physical and mental health, performance in school, extracurricular activities, etc.

33 E. When the child of the parties is not residing with a given parent, that parent 34 shall be permitted unimpeded and unmonitored telephone access with the child at 35 reasonable times and for reasonable durations. The child shall be entitled to send and 36 receive mail freely to and from the other parent with whom they are not then residing, without interference from the other parent.

F. At any social, church, athletic, scholastic, or extracurricular event attended by the child, the child may be accompanied by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time. The other parent may attend if such attendance is not disruptive to the child or the other participants.

G. In the event that the father brings a court action or commences mediation to enforce the provisions of this plan, he shall pay for the mother's related day care expenses for the mother's youngest daughter. The day care provider shall provide a statement which sets out the date, time and hourly amount of such charges.
