3.14 Summary of RCW 26.09.430 - .480, Regarding Relocation of a Child

This is a summary only. For the full text, please see RCW 26.09.430 through 26.09.480.

If the person with whom the child resides a majority of the time plans to move, that person shall give notice to every person entitled to court ordered time with the child.

If the move is outside the child's school district, the relocating person must give notice by personal service or by mail requiring a return receipt. This notice must be at least 60 days before the intended move. If the relocating person could not have known about the move in time to give 60 days' notice, that person must give notice within 5 days after learning of the move. The notice must contain the information required in RCW 26.09.440. See also form DRPSCU 07.0500, (Notice of Intended Relocation of A Child).

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person must provide actual notice by any reasonable means. A person entitled to time with the child may not object to the move but may ask for modification under RCW 26.09.260.

Notice may be delayed for 21 days if the relocating person is entering a domestic violence shelter or is moving to avoid a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to health and safety.

1 If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program,
2 it may be withheld from the notice.

3 A relocating person may ask the court to waive any notice requirements that may put
4 the health and safety of a person or a child at risk.

5 Failure to give the required notice may be grounds for sanctions, including contempt.

6 If no objection is filed within 30 days after service of the notice of intended
7 relocation, the relocation will be permitted and the proposed revised residential
8 schedule may be confirmed.

9 A person entitled to time with a child under a court order can file an objection to the 10 child's relocation whether or not he or she received proper notice.

11 An objection may be filed by using the mandatory pattern form WPF DRPSCU
12 07.0700, (Objection to Relocation/Petition for Modification of Custody
13 Decree/Parenting Plan/Residential Schedule). The objection must be served on all 14 persons entitled to time with the child.

15 The relocating person shall not move the child during the time for objection unless: (a)
16 the delayed notice provisions apply; or (b) a court order allows the move.

17 If the objecting person schedules a hearing for a date within 15 days of timely service
18 of the objection, the relocating person shall not move the child before the hearing
19 unless there is a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to the health or safety of a 20 person or a child.

VI. Other Provisions

There are the following other provisions:

A. It is the intention of the parents that each of them shall continue to have a full and active role in providing a sound moral, social, economic and educational environment for the child. The parents recognize that because of their separate households the dynamics of their interactions with the child have changed. In entering into this parenting plan which delineates many of their rights and responsibilities as parents, it is the intent of the parents that the goal of mutual involvement with the child will be achieved and the negative effects on the child of the change in the family dynamics will be minimized.

B. Each of the parents shall exert every reasonable effort to maintain free access and unhampered contact between the child and the other parent, and to foster feelings of affection between the child and the other parent. Neither parent shall do anything which would estrange the child from the other parent, or which would injure the opinion of the child as to the mother or the father, or which would impair the natural development of the child's love and respect for the other parent. Both parents agree to nurture, support and encourage the child's relationship with both parents. Neither parent will speak negatively regarding the other in the presence of the child. Neither parent shall make derogatory comments about the other parent or allow anyone else to do the same in the child's presence. Neither parent shall allow or encourage the child to make derogatory comments about the other parent.

C. Both parents shall be required to keep the other advised of his or her residential schedule and employment addresses and telephone numbers at all times, provided, however, that neither parent shall telephone the other or address mail to the other at his or her place of employment. (Calls to employment are okay in case of emergencies and for scheduling issues.)

D. Each parent shall have the equal and independent authority to confer with physicians, dentists, counselors, or other health care providers for the child, and each shall have free access to the child's health care records, unless otherwise provided by Court order or statute. Each parent shall provide the other parent promptly upon receipt any significant information regarding the welfare of the child including physical and mental health, performance in school, extracurricular activities, etc.

E. When the child of the parties is not residing with a given parent, that parent shall be permitted unimpeded and unmonitored telephone access with the child at reasonable times and for reasonable durations. The child shall be entitled to send and receive mail freely to and from the other parent with whom they are not then residing, without interference from the other parent.

1 F. At any social, church, athletic, scholastic, or extracurricular event attended by
2 the child, the child may be accompanied by the parent with whom the child is residing
3 at the time. The other parent may attend if such attendance is not disruptive to the 4 child or the other participants.

5 G. In the event that the father brings a court action or commences mediation to 6 enforce the provisions of this plan, he shall pay for the mother's related day care
7 expenses for the mother's youngest daughter. The day care provider shall provide a
8 statement which sets out the date, time and hourly amount of such charges.

9 VII. Declaration for Proposed Parenting Plan

10 Does not apply.

11 VIII. Order by the Court

12 It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the parenting plan set forth above is adopted and 13 approved as an order of this court.

15 terms is punishable by contempt of court and may be a criminal offense under RCW
16 9A.40.060(2) or 9A.40.070(2). Violation of this order may subject a violator to arrest.

17 When mutual decision making is designated but cannot be achieved, the parties shall make a
18 good faith effort to resolve the issue through the dispute resolution process.

19 If a parent fails to comply with a provision of this plan, the other parent's obligations under the 20 plan are not affected.
