That the said juvenile did sign the above-mentioned Diversion Agreement on 8/20/91, done according to law.

That the juvenile, Shawn Day, has violated the terms of the Diversion Agreement to-wit:

On August 20,1991, the respondent entered into a diversion contract with this court agreeing to complete 8 hours of community service by 11/27/91. To date the respondent has failed to complete the community service hours.

That further extension cannot be justified as being necessary within the meaning of RCW 13.40.080.

That said respondent has been given written notification of the alleged violation of the Diversion Agreement and evidence which will be offered against her
