Warnings to the Respondent: A violation of provisions 1 through 6 of this order with actual notice of its terms is a criminal offense under chapter 26.50 RCW and will subject you to arrest. If the violation of the protection order involves travel across a state line or the boundary of a tribal jurisdiction, or involves conduct within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States, which includes tribal lands, you may be subject to criminal prosecution in federal court under 18 U.S.C. §§ 2261, 2261A, or 2262.

A violation of provisions 1 through 6, 17, or 18 of this order is a gross misdemeanor unless one of the following conditions apply: Any assault that is a violation of this order and that does not amount to assault in the first degree or second degree under RCW 9A.36.011 or 9A.36.021 is a class C felony. Any conduct in violation of this order that is reckless and creates a substantial risk of death or serious physical injury to another person is a class C felony. Also, a violation of this order is a class C felony if you have at least two previous convictions for violating a protection order issued under Titles 7, 10, 26 or 74 RCW.

If your relationship to the victim is as intimate partner, then effective immediately, and continuing as long as this protection order is in effect, you may not possess a firearm or ammunition under federal law. 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(8). A violation of this federal firearms law carries a maximum possible penalty of 10 years in prison and a $250,000 fine.

If you are convicted of an offense of domestic violence, you will be forbidden for life from possessing a firearm or ammunition. 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(9); RCW 9.41.040.

You Can Be Arrested Even if the Person or Persons Who Obtained the Order Invite or Allow You to Violate the Order's Prohibitions. You have the sole responsibility to avoid or refrain from violating the order's provisions. Only the court can change the order upon written application.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2265, a court in any of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, any United States territory, and any tribal land within the United States shall accord full faith and credit to the order.

Warning: A person may be guilty of custodial interference in the second degree if they violate provisions 10, 11, or 12.

Washington Crime Information Center (WACIC) Data Entry

It is further ordered that the clerk of the court shall forward a copy of this order on or before the next judicial day to ______ County Sheriff's Office __ City Police Department where petitioner lives which shall enter it into WACIC.

Service

☐ The clerk of the court shall also forward a copy of this order on or before the next judicial day to ______ ☐ County Sheriff's Office ☐ City Police Department where respondent lives which shall personally serve the respondent with a copy of this order and shall promptly complete and return to this court proof of service.

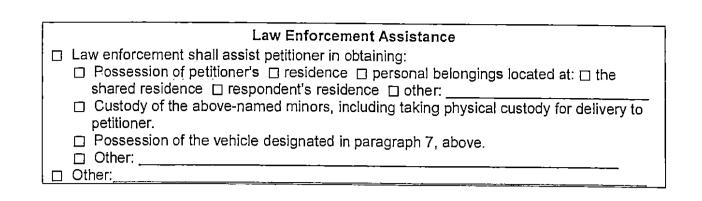

□ Petitioner shall serve this order by □ mail □ publication.

Petitioner shall make private arrangements for service of this order.

Respondent appeared and was informed of the order by the court; further service is not required.

This order is in effect until the expiration date on page one.

If the duration of this order exceeds one year, the court finds that an order of one year or less will be insufficient to prevent further acts of domestic violence.
