☒ Motion Clarification of GAL Authority; Shortening Time; and Appointment of Counsel for GAL

☐ Entry of Order ☐ Settlement ☐ Support Modification ☐ Status/Review ☐ JABS Review

Testimony taken:

Ms. Wood states that she agrees with her daughter's choice of lifestyle and invokes the ADA moving forward in this case.

Ms. Wood makes request the court to allow her to appear via zoom moving forward.

Court reads each individual motion request from Ms. Wood into the record.

Court grants Ms. Woods request to appear via zoom moving forward.

Court grants Ms. Woods request to be the Petitioner and Mr. Feulner be the Respondent in this case moving forward.

Ms. Woods addresses her motion to apply strict scrutiny.

Court asks Ms. Woods what strict scrutiny looks like to her.

Ms. Woods responds.

The court asks Mr. Feulner for his opinion on strict scrutiny.

Mr. Feulner does not know why this is even a point of contention.

GAL, Nancy Tarbell, addresses the court regarding the difference between strict scrutiny and best interest of the child. Points out that our state agrees with best interest.

Ms. Woods tells a story of a wise old bird.

Court adopts the GAL's recommendation of best interest of the child.

Court signs order shortening time for attorney appointment.

Ms. Tarbell supports pointing minor counsel, so it keeps herself out of the middle.

Ms. Tarbell requests the court to enter a fresh order nun pro tunc.

Court requests her to elaborate on request.
