DECLARATION

I, Heather Wood, am a US citizen over the age of 18, and a resident of the State of Washington; the facts that I have provided on this form are true.

I am Heather Wood, a committed mother for 16.5 years.

Days before I took Adeline for her failed drug test, I found her lounging in this top she bought for herself and one for a friend at the Olympia Lake Fair.

The top has spaghetti straps and is pink laced only covering a portion of her breasts. The top is similar to the playboy photos I caught Lenard showing my daughter when she was a toddler.

Adeline wore the top to work and I objected. Adeline claimed it is "body positive." I believe it is the opposite of positive, and actually draws negative and dangerous attention that a girl child would not know how to healthily deal with or process correctly.

I asked her kindly: "what has changed for you?" referring to Adeline's seemingly sudden change in demeanor.

She responded: "I think it is from being molested as a child," and the effects of that abuse are "showing up like this now."

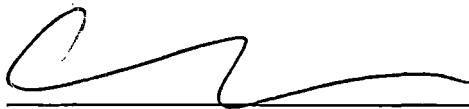

I responded that we need help. I would get us help, and "from now on, our family does not dress that way."

Adeline also bought a g-string bathing suit with a girlfriend that she wore in front of a friend's dad who was noticeably upset over it, and the mom talked to me about it in a text message.

I love my daughter unconditionally, and I want to get help for her, and continue parenting my child in a safe and respectful manner ~~at~~ home.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington and pursuant to General Court Rule 13 and RCW 9A.72.085 that the foregoing is true and correct.
