That Respondent put the home up for sale within the next 20 days with the proceeds from the sale of the home to be paid to the court registry to satisfy the judgment against respondent before he is to obtain any of the remaining proceeds from said sale.

Respondent is ordered to place the home up for sale immediately because he has made no effort in the past 12 months to refinance it.

The word "immediately" (decree) be defined as in equal to the next 20 days after entry of this order.

The judgment shall be a lien that must be satisfied before money from sale of the home or refinancing is dispensed (dispensed to the judgment as priority before other proceeds can be dispersed).

All proceeds from the sale of the home shall be held by the court registry until said judgment is dispersed by the court registry and therefore satisfied.

If the respondent choses refinance the home, he must do it before the 20 days has expired because he is to have the home listed by the 20th day.

Respondent must stay current on all interest.
