While the case # captioned above would have been properly within Kitsap County's Family Court subject matter and in personum jurisdiction due to the minor child's birth and both litigants' residency in Washington State, the Kangaroo unlawfully held impromptu hearing on 8-15-23 before Commissioner Clucas, without a scintilla of due process after the regularly scheduled MTSC hearing was disposed of and Lenard Feulner's motion dismissed, DEPRIVED jurisdiction and authority from this Court when it failed to meet even the most minimal procedural mandates subsequent to luring the parties back into the courtroom w/o notice in collusion with two non-participating attorneys (Williamson & Yelish) who observed a commotion/altercation between Heather Wood, mother, and Adeline, her child, OUTSIDE the COURTROOM & Courthouse in the hallway/lobby where it ensued-extrajudicially contacting Clucas and MODIFYING THE RECORD through UNSWORN statements without either parent's permission or participation. Thus, Heather Wood took exception to jurisdiction, and reserved the objection THROUGHOUT these fruit of the poisoned tree proceedings in protest despite her appearance. Similarly, Venue was improper in Kitsap because the child's domicile remained with the legal custodial parent, Heather Wood, who was and remains domiciled in Thurston County. Heather Wood NEVER abandoned Adeline. Adeline refused to leave the Lewis County (Providence) hospital w/her mother, & ran away w/her father who acted in concert w/his daughter to further alienate Adeline's affections from her mother while engaging in custodial interference, i.e. hiding/sheltering a runaway.

(1) OBJECTION 1: Commissioner Clucas was privately contracted by these two women w/o standing, local attorneys, Amanda Williams and Laura Yelish, who manipulated Clucas into unlawfully recalling the case w/o due process, notice, or an opportunity to confront the litigants' accusers, and taking statements from the two attorneys on the record w/o swearing them in: i.e. with NO testimony as a basis, and an illegally held hearing at that. Heather Wood continues to take exception on the record to this outrage and lawless Kangaroo hearing.

Heather Wood, the complaining mother in this instance continues to take exception on an continuing ongoing basis, reserving her protest/objection to the same to this violation of her civil rights and the kidnapping of her child under the pretext of the Court's authority without even the color of State law, thus lack of proper jurisdiction. Moreover, as a matter of law, the above captioned cause number, a Petition by the mother for a parenting plan was withdrawn and confirmed as withdraw by judge Adams, after recognizing the mother had served notice on all parties she had withdrawn her petition effective immediately. i.e. Procedurally, there exists no Petition to be joined to Lenard Feulner's de novo Petition for a parenting plan, thus requiring either a new case # to distinguish it from the rubbish pile he created in the above captioned cause number, now defunct/dismissed. Ms. Wood objects to Lenard Feulner's attempt to further his trashing the record, ambiguation and abuse of process. If he chooses to file a de novo petition, he is required to strictly adhere to original procedural requirements. He has yet to do so.

Mr Feulner may file under the original cause number brought on by the State of Washington as the Petitioner in 2007 or file under a NEW cause # issued by the Kitsap County Clerk's office as a parenting case. Procedurally, he should file as the Petitioner in that new cause # for a parenting plan, allowing for discovery and the full exercise of Due Process by the parties instead of the court acting as a shadow litigant and knight errant for the at risk child, Adeline Feulner.

(2) OBJECTION 2: Nancy Tarbell's GAL Report was filed after Heather Wood's Petition under the above captioned cause # was withdrawn & Dismissed. It should be struck from the record as untimely for a cause # wherein the record has been closed subsequent to the cause of the action being withdrawn and dismissed. Ms. Wood requests her objection be acted on.

(3) OBJECTION 3: GAL's PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND RE: GAL AUTHORITY

Ms. Wood takes exception to the GAL's assertion in her 1st paragraph of her report, "Many of the issues that halted my investigation have since been resolved with Judge Adams becoming the assigned judicial officer." The most salient and substantive of procedural errors remain including a plethora of corrupt substantively deficient on their face documents/pleadings in the case as well as void ab initio improper jurisdiction and venue resulting from an impromptu Kangaroo hearing conducted by Commissioner Clucas on 8-15-23 along with all the poisoned fruit procedurally emanating from that event—voiding them each in turn. The Court cannot un-ring the death knell commissioner Clucas struck to its authority/proper jurisdiction on 8-15-23.

All subsequent orders/appointments and settings were void ab initio as a result of the complete lack of Due Process afforded the litigants by Clucas on 8-15-23. The GAL coyly omits the salient fact the 2-16-24 hearing she references (case #23-2-01534-18) was docketed to hear Ms. Wood's Motion for Summary Judgment in her daughter's Emancipation Petition, an entirely separate cause in which Nancy Tarbel had NO standing whatsoever. Moreover, Ms. Wood struck that motion from the docket, as was her right. Yet the GAL and Judge Adams treated it as though it was one and the same despite Judge Adams acknowledging the mother's withdrawal of her Petition and effectively dismissing it. The abomination of procedural errors continued apace when Adams ruled Mr. Feulner's responsive pleading to the now defunct Petition brought by the mother would be treated as a COUNTER CLAIM when none existed in fact or in law. Like the nunc pro tunc magic the GAL references, judge Adams needed only to snap her gavel to make it so despite the stars in the heavens, time, or any other facts based in reality or law. Ms. Wood HAD provided timely notice to the Court, both electronically (2-9-24) and by mail Petition, which 2/16/24, a proceeding scheduled for Adeline's Emancipation cause but struck from the Docket by Ms. Wood as it was HER Motion for Summary Judgment in Adeline's Petition, which the Court had NO AUTHORITY to hold as the Child failed to ever provide the mother with a SUMMONS or Proof thereof as required. It would seem the Court's failure to ensure mandatory Original Service & Due Process in both cause numbers, deprived it of proper legal jurisdiction in either. Thus, arguments relating to "Counter Claims" under such circumstances are moot; challenges to jurisdiction are ALWAYS timely. The documented sexual abuse of Adeline was not checked by the GAL.

- ☒ the distance between the parents' homes makes it hard to make timely decisions together.

6. Dispute Resolution

Important! After this parenting plan is signed by a judge or commissioner, if you and the other parent disagree about shared decisions or what parts of this plan mean, the court may require you to use a dispute resolution provider before going back to court. The court may only require a dispute resolution provider if there are no limitations in 3.a. above. If a dispute resolution provider is checked below, the parents may, and sometimes must, use this provider before filing a Petition to Change a Parenting Plan or a Motion for Contempt for not following the plan. Check your county's Local Court Rules.

a. The parents will go to (check one):

11. Conflicts in Scheduling

The Holiday Schedule must be observed over all other schedules. If there are conflicts within the Holiday Schedule (check all that apply):

[] Named holidays shall be followed before school breaks.

[] Children's birthday/s shall be followed before named holidays and school breaks.

[] Other (specify): _____

12. Transportation Arrangements

The children will be exchanged for parenting time (picked up and dropped off) at:

[] each parent's home

[] school or daycare, when in session

[X] other location: Selected professional visitation supervising service location.

Who is responsible for arranging transportation?

[] The picking up parent – The parent who is about to start parenting time with the children must arrange to have the children picked up.

[] The dropping off parent – The parent whose parenting time is ending must arrange to have the children dropped off.

13. Moving with the Child/dren (Relocation)

Anyone with majority or substantially equal residential time (at least 45 percent) who wants to move with the children must notify every other person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the relocating person must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the relocating person could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, they must give notice within 5 days after learning the information.
- If the relocating person is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate, and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A relocating person who believes that giving notice would put themselves or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

Time: 1:30 PM ZOOM #: passcode

~~Commissioner/Calendar:~~

If the relocating person wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, they must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

Move within the same school district

If the move is within the ~~same~~ school district, the relocating person still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A relocating person who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens, the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the relocating person to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the relocating person to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the relocating person's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move, but they may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with Children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (Form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the relocating person and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of Intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the relocating person may not move to a different school district with the children unless they have a court order allowing the move.

~~After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the relocating person may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.~~

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the relocating person may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

[X] Hearing is Set (time sensitive emergency XP)

Date: 3/15/2024

Rm. TBD?

Time: 1:30 PM ZOOM #: passcode

Commissioner/Calendar:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the relocating person. (However, the relocating person may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the relocating person believes that they or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)

The court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

Parenting Plan after move

If the relocating person served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.
- Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with Children (FL Relocate 706).

Forms

You can find forms about moving with children at:

- The Washington State Courts' website: www.courts.wa.gov/forms,
- Washington LawHelp: www.washingtonlawhelp.org, or
- The Superior Court Clerk's office or county law library (for a fee).

(This is a summary of the law. The complete law is in RCW 26.09.430 through 26.09.480.)
