DECLARATION

I, Colleen Wasner, am a US citizen over the age of 18, and a resident of the State of Washington; the facts that I have provided on this form are true.

On this date, August 19th , 2023, I do hereby declare under penalty of perjury, that the following is true and correct to the best of my ability.

On or around the summer of 2016, my daughter Olivia's father, Richard M. Fellows, introduced Olivia and I to both Heather and Adeline, a mother daughter duo living in Olympia. Adeline and Olivia were close in age and got along as play friends right away. The mother, Heather, was making bee boxes at Richard's place, he had more room outside for projects than her apartment afforded.

During this warm period, I would take the 'kids' to the river to swim, mostly, because that was the best thing to do on a hot day and we know a great spot on the clean and clear Deshutes, which empties out from Mt. Rainier. Afterward we would go out for treats and then come home to refresh, which always included pet time. Adeline had bunnies at her place and easily adapted to playing with Simon the dog and our two cats Pokey and Boo.

In the winter they would do more indoor things or bundle up for pretty autumn walks along trails. We would still go to the river, but only the dog would venture in the water if it was not running too swiftly. I can't think of any interactions outside of this sphere of gathering for the purpose of fun. Adeline took some cooking classes and came over, making spring rolls and other delights. This is how I know them.

Adeline also helped Olivia do her hair and she was extremely talented at that as well. Our memories of these two are fond, and my heart aches that there is any kind of issue going on, though in life there can be bumpy roads unforeseen. We pray that there is a true and soulful resolution for this family that is obviously suffering. We care deeply for this little family and want to support them in the best way we can, and by we, I mean Olivia and myself and also her father.

Some pictures were sent to Heather by phone of Adeline, Olivia and our pets.
We treasure those times.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the facts I have provided are true.
