MUSIC IN THE PARK

A free concert series at Post Office Park (2nd & Railroad) at 7:00 PM in Shelton, Washington presented by Skookum Rotary

JULY 12	Anna's Bay Chorale opens the concert series with summer Gleek Fest. This all-volunteer group will bring fabulously fun songs from the hit television show Glee, including music from Fleetwood Mac, Queen, Coldplay and, of course, Journey.
JULY 19	Half-Hitched, old-time country, with a rock 'n' roll twist brings a great sense of fun and energy. They performed at OysterFest last year. They promise to get your feet tapping!
JULY 26	TBA very soon!
AUG 2	TBA very soon!
AUG 9	ForEvergreen String Band brings traditional American music at its best. This band will make you remember America in a different era.
AUG 16	Dr. Frederick Davis from MGH takes us down memory lane with his acoustic guitar, singing our favorite folk tunes and ballads. By day, Dr. Davis leads the orthopedic department at the hospital, and his local musical reputation is rapidly growing!
AUG 23	PoleBaBa, aka Paul Barber and Ron Grinnell will bring a unique blend of rock and folk, old and new. It's a treat to hear Paul and Ron. From piano to fiddle, you will be glad you came!
AUG 30	Mason County All-Church Choir takes the stage and shares the musical program it generally reserves as a gift to our veteran's on Veteran's Day. They will mix in traditional spiritual music, too!
